

MASTER IN HUMAN RIGHTS AND CONFLICT MANAGEMENT

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR 14 POSITIONS RESERVED TO NON EU CANDIDATES

A.Y. 2015/2016

ART. 1 The Master Programme

In accordance with Art. 3 of the School's Charter, the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna -Institute of Law, Politics and Development- in Pisa, Italy, is offering a Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management for the academic year 2015/2016.

The Master will be held at Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna in Pisa and at dedicated venues for the internship, starting on January 13th 2016 and ending in Spring 2017. It will be on a full-time basis, and the language of instructions will be English.

ART. 2 Academic credits

A maximum of 67 academic credits will be awarded upon successful completion of the Programme, subordinate to evaluation of results and regular class attendance, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management. Degrees are awarded to students who attain a minimum of 60 academic credits.

ART. 3 Goals

The main educational goals of the Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management are as follows:

- To train high-rank professionals who will work in design, management and monitoring positions within the schemes and actions promoted by national, regional, international or non-governmental organisations, for the double purpose of protecting human rights and preventing, mitigating or solving conflicts.
- To train professionals who will combine, in a dynamic, non-sequential way, critical knowledge and technical-operational knowledge as the key components of an extremely professional service in complex situations.
- To train professionals who are aware of the mutual connections between the protection of human rights and conflict management, and who possess a sound juridical and methodological background and practical-operational skills in such areas.
- To train professionals who, in the design and management of actions and in decision-making processes, will keep into account the historical, geopolitical, economic dimensions as well as the 'gender' component and the complexity of the intercultural relations.

ART. 4 Teaching methodology and Phases of the Programme

The lectures covered by the Master Programme will adopt an intercultural perspective and a cross-disciplinary approach. Teaching methodologies will rely on the analysis of real situations and concrete examples, and will include a high number of drills, simulations and/or role-plays.

The syllabus of the Master Programme, in addition to individual studying and the preparation of a final dissertation or project work, will cover 440 hours of classroom lectures and a 480 hours' internship.

The didactic phase will consist of two modules: Module one, mostly theoretical and methodological, and Module two, mostly practice-oriented. Class attendance will be compulsory. Classes will be held from Monday to Friday on a full time basis. For special sessions or in exceptional cases classes will be held also on Saturday.

Two rounds of exams will be held during the didactic phase, at the end of Module one and of Module two respectively. Moreover, special exam sessions will be held at the end of, or during, specific courses. In order to be admitted to the internship and to be entitled to the final degree, it is mandatory to pass the course's final exam for those courses whose credits are identified as compulsory.

Furthermore, admission to the internship shall be subject to acquiring a minimum of 33 academic credits, by passing the due examinations.

The goal of the internship is to supplement the classroom lectures with direct hands-on experience within national and international institutions and organisations.

The rights and duties of the students of the Master Programme, as well as the relations between the students and the School's facilities, are regulated by the General Rules and Regulations of the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna and by the Rules and Regulations of the Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management.

ART. 5 Dissertation or Project work

At the end of the Master Programme, the students shall produce a written dissertation or a project work related to their internship experience and to the topics covered within the didactic phase of the MA Programme, which will be publicly discussed.

ART. 6 Places Available and Entry Requirements

The Master is limited to a maximum of 28 positions, 14 of which are meant for non EU candidates.

Applicants for the Master Programme shall:

- Have a three years (at least) university degree or equivalent, issued by a university institution or equivalent. Students who expect to attain such qualifications before December 31st 2015 are also eligible;
- Understand, speak and write English at least at level C1, as exemplified in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (Council of Europe).

Up to 25% of the total places available for both NON EU and EU candidates will be reserved to participants already admitted to the previous Master edition and that, for justified reasons, were accorded the deferral of admission, on condition that they will respect the specific requirements indicated in the admission deferral letter.

ART. 7 Application Procedure

Applicants shall enter their application online, at www.humanrights.sssup.it, following the procedure described in the section "Application Process" in order to access the online application form. Applicants are strongly advised to carefully fill in all the compulsory fields, included the field devoted to the description of their motivational profile. In case of failure of the online application system, applicants are advised to contact the MA Secretariat via email to humanrights@sssup.it, as to receive instructions.

The following documents shall be enclosed with the online application:

- ❑ CV/ résumé;
- ❑ Transcript of all records of the BA degree (or equivalent), with the marks of each single exam passed and, if applicable, the final mark, issued by the applicant's University and written either in Italian, or English, or French, or German, or Spanish. Applicants are informed that in case the BA degree transcript is missing, the application will be considered inadmissible.

Citizens of non-OECD countries who wish to ask for a reduction of the Master tuition fee and are eligible to this effect under ART. 9 of this call, shall fill in the appropriate section of the application form.

The application deadline for the first round of the selection is set on 2nd July 2015, while the application deadline for the second round is set on 17th September 2015.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to apply in the first round as space in the class may be limited by the second round.

Forged deeds and false statements shall be punished in accordance with the Criminal Code and any other applicable law; the School shall conduct random checks of the received statements.

ART. 8 Selection Process

The selection process covers an assessment of the applicants' qualifications and, only if deemed relevant by the Selection Committee, a telephone interview.

The Committee will select the applicants by awarding up to 100 points to their qualifications, based on the following criteria:

- Academic curriculum (average of marks received at exams, mark of the graduation exam if applicable, consistency of the curriculum and dissertation with the contents of the Master Programme) up to 24 points;
- Motivational profile, up to 30 points;
- Relevant trainings in the sector, up to 16 points;
- Relevant professional experience in the sector, up to 16 points;
- Remarkable relevant volunteering experience, up to 5 points;
- Language skills (except English), up to 7 points;
- Publications if relevant to the Master Programme, up to 2 point.

Only applicants who receive an overall score of at least 60/100 points will be considered eligible for the Programme. Eligible applicants will be inserted in a merit list, according to which up to 14 positions will be offered to the applicants with the highest score in the list.

At the end of the process, the Selection Committee will prepare the list of admitted and reserve students which will be published on the Master's website. The result of the selection will be timely notified to applicants by email.

ART. 9 Tuition fee and Scholarship

The tuition fee for the full Programme is 7.500,00 euros, payable in two instalments of 3.750 and 3.750 euros. It covers the following: attendance costs and participation to field trips, didactic materials (mainly in electronic format), tutorship and lunches (on class and exam days), access to all School's facilities (including library and computer rooms). Travel, accommodation in Pisa and during the internship and any other expense are the responsibility of each participant.

The Master Programme offers no. 1 scholarship, covering the full tuition fee, to be automatically awarded to the participant who receives the highest score out of the entire pool of applicants (EU and NON EU).

Upon acceptance, the winner shall lodge a caution deposit, which will be paid back to her/him at the end of the residential phase of the Master Programme, provided that there has been a regular attendance.

If the winner thereafter decides to withdraw from or drops out of the Master Programme, he/she will not be paid back the caution deposit.

Depending on financial availability, the MA Programme might offer a reduced tuition fee on the basis of merit and financial situation to citizens of non-OECD countries who are eligible for release of a visa for Italy.

Applications for financial assistance will receive consideration only in connection with completed applications for admission to the Master in Human Rights and Conflict Management. Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna reserves the right to determine the amount of each contribution and the awarding criteria.

ART. 10 Acceptance – Payment methods

Admitted applicants who wish to attend the Master Programme shall give confirmation of their acceptance by the deadline indicated in the admission letter. To confirm, they shall send either by fax (+39 050-882665) or by email (humanrights@sssup.it) the following documents:

- Photocopy of valid ID document;
- Letter of admission to the Master Programme, duly counter-signed for acceptance;
- Receipt of payment of the first instalment, or receipt of payment of caution deposit (for scholarship holder).

Payment methods:

- By bank transfer to UNICREDIT Banca di Roma S.p.a., branch of Pisa, P.za Garibaldi 1, IBAN: IT 32 0 02008 14006 000401272765, BIC/SWIFT: UNCRITM1G12, BENEFICIARY: "Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna di Studi Universitari e di Perfezionamento", description of payment: "No. of instalment (e.g.: 1st instalment), MAHRCM2016, student's full name".

Admitted students who are citizens of non-EU member states residing outside Italy shall contact the Italian Embassy in their country of residence (for the addresses please see: www.esteri.it/visti/index_eng.asp), as soon as they receive notification of admission, in order to apply for a visa for study purposes.

By the beginning of the Master programme, all admitted students holding a non-Italian qualification will be required to obtain the formalization of their academic qualifications. To this effect, they shall contact in due time the Italian Embassy in the country of the academic institution which issued their qualification.

In order to finalise their attendance to the Master Programme, before the beginning of the courses all students shall hand out to the MA Secretariat a 16-euro revenue stamp, to be affixed onto their application, and a recent passport-size photo in jpeg format.

In the event of any student withdrawing from or dropping out of the Programme, after confirmation of attendance, he/she shall not be paid back any amount. Moreover, he/she shall still be bound to pay any fees payable up to the time of withdrawal.

The second 3.750,00-euro tuition fee instalment shall be paid by March 31st 2016.

ART. 11 Degree Awarded

At the end of the Master Programme, those students who have regularly attended and have passed all the required examinations will receive from Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna a Master Degree (I Level), stating the gained academic credits, in accordance with art. 3 paragraph 8 of the Italian MD no. 509 of November 3rd 1999.

ART. 12 Personal Data and measures of prevention of corruption

In accordance with Italian Legislative Decree n. 196 30/06/2003 (Personal Data Protection Code), please note that the personal details collected by Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna, the holder of such data processing, will be used solely for the purposes pertaining to the management of this Master Programme, in accordance with the applicable regulations. The Scuola shall be responsible for such data processing. Anyone concerned can assert the rights under art. 7 of the Italian Legislative Decree n. 196/2003 with the Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna.

The Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna operates in compliance with Law n. 190/2012 concerning the prevention of corruption by implementing measures identified in the "Three-year plan for the prevention of corruption" published in the section "Transparent Administration" of the Scuola website at: <http://www.sssup.it/amministrazione-trasparente/altri-contenuti/corruzione>.
